

INDEX

OF PRINCIPAL MATTERS.

PAGE.

AMENDMENT.

The district court cannot amend its own judgment, after it is signed, and execution has issued; and if an appeal be brought on the judgment so amended, a statement of facts made, after its signature, is not legal. Louisiana Bank vs. Hampton, 94

APPEAL.

1. Lies from a judgment confirming the nomination of a syndic. Enet vs. his creditors, 307
2. From the improper denial of a continuance.—
Broussart vs. Trahan's heirs, 489
3. But not till final judgment. Las Cuygas vs. Larienda's syndics, 605
4. Or of a new trial. Sorrel vs. St. Julien, 508
- From an order quashing an execution. Prampin vs. Andry, 314
- From the discharge of a garnishee from his bond. Laverty vs. Anderson, 606
- Will be dismissed, if there be neither statement of facts, bill of exception, or special verdict. Allard vs. Ganushean, 384
- Same point. Brou vs. Herman, id.
- Same point. Broussart vs. Trahan's heirs, 516

- 10 Or if it does not appear that the matter in dispute exceeds the value of $300. Mercier vs. Packwood. 33
- 11 Will not be suffered to be dismissed by the appellant, to avoid the payment of damages, if it clearly appears that it was brought for delay only. Shannon vs. Barnwell & al. 31
- 12 If an order of seizure be rescinded, the plaintiff must have a statement of facts made, and the appeal will not be sustained on a bill of exceptions. Poydras vs. Robillard. 174
- 13 Under the Spanish government, when the appeal did not suspend the execution, there was no necessity to procure the desertion of the appeal to be pronounced, in order to give to the judgment, appealed from, the authority of the thing judged. Le Blanc & al. vs. Croiset. 22
- 14 A statement of facts may consist of a detail of the evidence. Abat vs. Dobille. 316
- 15 Although the supreme court think that the inferior ought to have charged the jury, as the appellant prayed, or ordered a new trial, if the whole case is before them, they will not remand the cause. Same case. 22
- 16 The appellant may assign error, apparent on the face of the record. Denis vs. Cordeviella. 654
- 17 Manner of doing this. General rule. 657
- 18 No appeal lies from the order of a court of probates, granting three months to the curator of a vacant estate to account, and directing that, on his failure, his bond shall be put in suit. Denis vs. Cordeviella. 344

PRINCIPAL MATTERS.

747

- 19 On the dismissal of an appeal, no mandate can issue to the inferior court, to execute its judgment. Louisiana Bank vs. Hampton. 298
- 20 A new party made on the appeal. Gouge vs. Olinda. 96
- 21 If the appellant appears to have been under an error, damages will not accompany the affirmation of the judgment. Mayor & al. vs. Davis. 533
- 22 The right of appeal is determined by the sum demanded, not by that recovered. Harang vs. Dauphin. 27
- 23 By appealing, the appellant admits that the judgment is final. Breed vs. Repsher & al. 187
- 24 An appeal will not be dismissed, because the authority of the person who signed the bond for the principal does not appear. Delisle vs. Gaines. 666

See VAGRANT ESTATE 2.

ATTACHMENT.

- 1 Lies against master and owners of a vessel for goods lost through their neglect. Hunt vs. Norris & al. 517
- 2 The condition of a garnishee's bond is complied with by his appearances and answer to interrogatories. Laverty vs. Anderson. 606
- 3 The creditors of the vendor may, before delivery, attach the things sold. Norris vs. Mumford. 30

See APPEAL 6.

ATTORNEY.

- His irregular act may become binding on his principal by the implied ratification of the latter.
- Pechaud vs. Peytavin.* 73

AUCTION.

If property be leased by, the auctioneer is not entitled to the allowance by law, in case of a sale, but to a compensation on a quantum meruit. Dutillet & al. vs. Chardon. 611

BAILMENT.

He who takes charge of a slave, without reward, is not liable for his fortuitous escape. Bayon vs. Prevost. 50

BILL OF EXCEPTIONS.

- 1 Cannot be taken to a final judgment. Duverney's heirs vs. Lafon. 96
- 2 Same point. Fagot vs. David. 1

BILL OF EXCHANGE.

- 1 A blank endorsement may be struck out at the trial. Baker vs. Montgomery & al. 30
- 2 A bill from the Quarter-Master-General, on the Secretary of the United States, needs not be protested in case of non-payment. Same case. 12
- 3 Notice of its non-payment must be within a reasonable time. Pinder vs. Nathan and al. 346
- 4 What is a reasonable time. Same case. 12
- 5 If A employs B. to purchase bills, and he gets them on his own credit from C, the latter will have no action against A. if there be no fraud or collusion. Antory & al. vs. Grieve's syndics. 632

BILL OF SALE

Of a parish judge, acting as sheriff, is good, though he takes the appellation of sheriff, and not that of judge. Bayon vs. Mollers & al. 66

CARRIER.

- His liability does not begin till the goods are delivered to him. Williams vs. Paytavin. 304

CESSIO BONORUM.

- 1 A conveyance, at the eve of a cession, the consideration of which was not paid at the time, is void. Roussel vs. Dukeylus' syndics. 218
- 2 A conveyance, at the same time, to a creditor, of real property, in discharge of a debt, for which he had a lien thereon, is void. Meeker's assignees vs. Williamson & al. syndics. 625
- 3 The majority, in amount, of the creditors, is necessary for the choice of syndics. Equet vs. his creditors. 307
- 4 The choice is to be made among themselves, unless they all agree. Same case. id.
- 5 Privileged creditors are to concur in the choice. Same case. 401
- 6 The syndics cannot proceed till their appointment be homologated. Dukeylus' syndics vs. Dumontel & al. 466
- 7 The debtor not allowed to withdraw his petition, after a suggestion of fraud. Clague & al. vs. Lewis & al. 673
- 8 The order of stay will be rescinded, if the cession be not made at the meeting of the creditors. Deglanc vs. his creditors. 697
- 9 After an homologation of the proceedings, it cannot be objected that the proceedings of the creditor were recorded in French. Dussuau's Syndics vs. Bredeaux. 450

10 The syndics are entitled to the property in possession of their debtor, who acted at times for himself, at others as agent, unless the principal prove his property. Barker vs. Connellin's syndics. 177

11 Syndics become personally liable, by their misconduct only. Seghers vs. Visinier & al. 80

12 In general, the ceding debtor, who has no release, is not suable till the property ceded be liquidated. Fitzgerald vs. Phillips. 250

CONSIDERATION.

A promise, in consideration of the governor being prevailed on by the promisee, to appoint the promisor to an office, is not binding. Fauris vs. Morin's syndics & al. 39

CONSIGNEE.

May sue for injury done to the goods. Morgan vs. Bell. 220

CONSOLIDATION.

If cases be consolidated, and distinct verdict and judgments be given in each, the supreme court cannot consider them as consolidated. Esteve vs. Rochon. 421

CONSTABLE.

Selling land under an execution, must advertise in the same manner as the sheriff. Reeves vs. Kershaw. 513

DAMAGES.

See APPEAL 11 & 21.

EVIDENCE.

1 The signatures and official characters of the ancient governors of Louisiana are matter of public notoriety, and evidence of the genuineness of the former is not required. Jones vs. Gale's curatrix.

PRINCIPAL MATTERS.

751

635

The signature and official character of a foreign notary may be proved by witnesses. Las Caygas vs. Larienda's syndics.

283

The celebration of a marriage in North Carolina may be proved by parol. White & al. vs. Holstein & al.

471

Parol evidence ought not to be admitted to destroy a title to real property. Same case.

id.

An act is evidence of every disposition in it, and of what is expressed by way of recital, when it has reference to the disposition. St. Maxent's syndics vs. Puche.

193

An original notarial act cannot be rejected, because the keeper ought not to have parted therewith. Baudin vs. Pollock & al.

613

Although a suit was dismissed, the record of it is evidence between the parties. Bore's ex'r. vs. Quierry's ex'r.

545

The party who has offered proof of emancipation may offer evidence of a free birth. Beard vs. Poydras.

348

Parol evidence of an agreement for the freedom of a slave is inadmissible. Victoire vs. Dussan.

212

EXCHANGE.

An agreement for an exchange of slaves, not signed by the parties, is invalid. Morgan vs. McGowan,

209

EXECUTION.

If the property advertised for sale on an execution, be not sold, it is to be advertised anew, as if it had not been advertised before. Crocker vs. Watkins.

EXECUTOR.

- 1 If a suit be not brought till thirteen years after the death of the testator, it is too late, though by the will time was allowed to the executor to complete his trust beyond the year. Lamotte's ex'rs. vs. Dufour.
- 2 The time during which the courts were shut, during the invasion, is to be deducted from the year which an executor has to complete his trust. Quierry's ex. vs. Faussier's ex.

EXPERTS.

- 1 If two be appointed to verify a signature, and they disagree, and on the motion of the party a third be appointed by the court, he cannot assign this as error. Lecarpentier vs. Delery's ex'rs.
- 2 Are to decide on a comparison of hand-writing, and cannot receive and act on information of the circumstances of the case. Same case.

FRAUD.

A fraudulent conveyance, gives no title to a party to the fraud. Bayon vs. Mollere & al.

GARNISHEE.

See ATTACHMENT.

HEIR.

- 1 Is not suable till he accepts the inheritance. Cresse vs. Marigny.

PRINCIPAL MATTERS.

753

- 2 Same point. Johnson vs. Boon's heirs. 380
- 3 Is bound by a judgment obtained against the administrator. Randal's heirs & al. vs. Baldwin & al. 456
- 4 An estate cannot be proceeded against till there be either an heir, who accepts, or a curator. Same case. 45

HIGHWAY.

- 1 A toll is public property, and cannot be recovered in a suit by individuals. Henthorp & al. vs. Bourg & al. 97

HUSBAND AND WIFE.

- 1 When married persons remove to a new country, their rights, as to the property afterwards acquired, are regulated according to its laws. Gale vs. Davis' heirs. 643
- 2 Land of the wife, whether dotal or not, is not affected by the husband's debts. Robillard vs. Robillard. 603
- 3 If the wife behaves outrageously towards the husband, a separation will not be granted her on account of his ill-treatment. Durand vs. her husband. 174
- 4 A sale of land by the husband to the wife, to replace her paraphernal property, by him sold, is good. Prevost vs. Prevost & al. 506
- 5 A married woman has a lien for her dotal property only. Rion vs. Rion's syndics. 341; 591

INSURANCE.

- 1 The sentence of a foreign court is conclusive evidence of the national character of the ship. Blanque vs. Peytavin. 458

INDEX OF ## JETTISON.

Goods on deck not entitled to compensation therefor. Hampton vs. Brig Thaddeus. 529

JOINT OWNER.

Is bound to that care, which prudent men have of their property. Guillot vs. Donsat. 302

JUDGMENT.

- 1 A judgment rendered in Baton Rouge, before the United States took possession of the country, is not a foreign one. Terry vs. Patton & ex. 601
- 2 Same point. Decker's ex. vs. Bradford's heirs. 311
- 3 It is sufficiently certain, when the amount recovered clearly appears from the documents. Same case. 12
- 4 Which does contain none of the reasons on which it was given, nor any reference to the law, is null and void. Gray & al. vs. Laveray. 43

LEVEE.

Individually required to work on that of a delinquent planter, are to be paid out of the parish treasury, and have no action against him. Foster vs. O'Donough. 718

LIEN.

A builder does not lose his tacit one by his neglect to record his contract. Lafon vs. Sallotte. 476

MORTGAGE.

- 1 One who, to secure a debt, receives a bill of sale of slaves, instead of a mortgage, cannot take possession of them by his own act. Baron vs. Thelma. 323
- 2 If a mortgagee receive a negotiable note for his

PRINCIPAL MATTERS.

257

debt, he cannot resort to his lien, without showing that he still holds the note. Car vs. Roberts's syndics.

11

3 If a debt, secured by mortgage, be intermingled in an account with single debts of a greater amount, and a small balance due on the whole, so that it does not appear whether it be part of the mortgage or single contract debts, the mortgage will not avail. Same case.

id.

4 The purchaser, under a sciri facias, cannot recover the money paid, on the ground that the property sold was mortgaged. Lewis vs. Fran.

597

NATURAL CHILD.

He who claims his estate, as father, must prove his acknowledgment, by the registry of baptism, or two witnesses. Pigeau vs. Duvernay.

265

NEW-ORLEANS.

1 Mayor may abandon part of his salary. Mayor & al. vs. Girod.

698

Mayor, &c. may sue for the removal of a nuisance. Mayor etc. vs. Magnon.

2

ORDER.

For cotton, given in payment of a debt, must be presented in a reasonable time, or it will be at the creditor's risk. Turner vs. Rabb.

330

PASAGE.

De, &c. treinta ptes, &c. In a Spanish deed, transfers the soil itself, not a right of way only. Ducournau vs. Marigny.

708

PARTNER,

- 1 Contracting for the partnership, may not say he did so without authority. Kemper vs. Smith. 409
- 2 His private debt cannot be set off against one of the firm. Thomas & al. vs. Elkins. 378

PRACTICE.

- 1 Where process is ordered by the judge of an adjoining district, the presumption is, that the case was one in which he was authorised to act. Breed vs. Ropshey & al. 187
- 2 If the defendant pleads the general issue, and that the plaintiff is his debtor, he cannot shew that the plaintiff agreed to receive his debt in Bordeaux and made no demand there. Douglas vs. Papis. 184
- 3 On a rule to shew cause, in favor of a police jury, for expenses on a levee, if the defendant denies every thing charged, the judge cannot proceed to judgment, without a trial. Syndics etc. vs. Mayhew. 177
- 4 If leave be given, to answer, so as not to delay the trial, a right to a trial by jury is not thereby given up, although to obtain it the trial may be delayed. Tricou vs. Bayou. 169
- 5 In the court of the first district, no notice of trial is necessary. Sierra vs. Slott. 587
- 6 Saturday is not a trial day there. Same case. 52
- 7 If a suit be continued, and the party have a month to procure a deposition, the cause must be set down a-new, after that time. Same case. 66

PRINCIPAL MATTERS.

737

- 8 If a party dies after the contestatio litis, the attorney may carry on the suit. Rochon vs. Montreuil. 485
- 9 A dedimus potestatem is not necessarily to be directed to a magistrate. Dunn vs. Blunt. 677
- 10 When it is so directed, no proof is necessary of the commissioner being a magistrate. Same case. id.
- 11 In the court of the parish and city of New-Orleans, if the cause of action be stated to have arisen at Bayou St. John, this will suffice. Delisle vs. Gaines. 666
- 12 A judgment of dismissal ought to contain the reasons on which it is grounded. Serra vs. Slort. 587
- 13 Whether the recourse of nullity against final judgments, as it prevailed under the Spanish government, be still a part of the judiciary system of the state? Meeker's ass. vs. Williamson et al. syndics. 625
- 14 The misbehaviour of the counsel or jury must be taken advantage of, by a motion for a new trial. Morgan vs. Bell. 615
- 15 A judgment by default may be made final, without assigning reasons therein. Allard vs. Gannacheau. 662
- 16 If there be a prayer for general relief, damages may be given beyond the specific sum claimed, if the petition shews that they are due. Morgan vs. McGowan. 289
- 17 An injunction not to molest or trouble, does not prevent a suit to ascertain a right. Mayor &c. vs. Magnon. 2

- 18 A sheriff, who wrongfully executes the process of a court, may be sued in another. Clark's ex'ra. vs. Morgan. 79
- 19 Where a cause is set down for hearing, and one of the counsel does not attend, it may be heard ex parte, or dismissed. General rule. 80
- 20 But it may be reinstated, on good cause shewn. 81
- 21 When an insolvent applies to a court for relief, all suits depending against him in other courts are suspended, and his creditors must be proceeded, in that court. Cox vs. Zerlingue. 81
- 22 When a commission issues, by consent, the affidavit of the materiality of the testimony is useless. Clay's syndics vs. Kirkland. 82
- 23 No law requires the service of a copy of the interrogatories. Same case. 83
- 24 A ceding debtor, who has obtained no discharge, is suable by the simple contract creditors, where it appears that the privileged creditors, absorb all the estate, even before its liquidation. Fitzgerald vs. Phillips. 89
- 25 A ceding debtor has his remedy against his creditors, if the syndics waste the property ceded. Same case. 91
- 26 A graduate, of an incorporated American seminary, will be entitled to examination for a licence to practice law, after two years' study under an attorney. General rule. 338
- 27 Interest not allowed on a sum awarded by the verdict, which was before unliquidated. Morgan vs. Bell. 618

PRINCIPAL MATTERS.

739

- 28 The acts of another attorney, than the one on record, are not invalid. Clay's syndics vs. Kirkland.

405

PRESCRIPTION.

- Land not susceptible of alienation, cannot be acquired by. Mayor etc. vs. Magnon.

2

PRISON BOUNDS.

- A person there confined, under judgment from the district court, may be discharged by the parish court. Cox vs. Zeringue.

261

PROTEST.

- The protest of a bill of exchange proves itself. Cause vs. Sagors.

61

PROMISSORY NOTE.

- 1 The holder of a negotiable note, endorsed in blank, may sue thereon. Attard vs. Gannabine.

662

- 2 If one puts his name on the back of a note, not negotiable, the presumption is, that he meant to become surety for the signer. Cooley vs. Lawrence.

639

- 3 His liability does not depend on the fulfilment of the formalities required by the liability of an endorser. Same case.

id.

- 4 The payee may recover from such a surety, although he has neglected to sue the principal, or through delay may have suffered some advantage to be lost, whereby the surety is placed in a worse situation. Same case.

id.

- 5 If an endorser receive back a note from his endorser, he may recover from the payor without a re-endorsement. Delisle vs. Guiney.

666

RESIDENCE.

If the year of residence of an insolvent debtor expire after he has been confined thirty days, and he applies for the benefit of the insolvent law thirty days after, he cannot be released.
Rhendorff vs. his creditors. 391

SALE.

- 1 If a slave be sold as bon domestique, cocher et briquetier, and he be proven to be a good servant, and a coachman and brick-maker, this will suffice. Duncan vs. Cavallo's heirs. 371
- 2 A runaway slave cannot be sold by the sheriff till three days after the date of the advertisement. La Branche vs. Watkins. 391
- 3 If a sheriff sell a runaway, and instantly take a bill of sale from the vendee for the same price, the sale will be presumed fictitious. Same case. 44
- 4 An order for the delivery of the thing sold is not a delivery of it. Norris vs. Mumford. 20
- 5 The creditor of the vendor may attach the thing sold before delivery. Same case. 64
- 6 In a sale by the sheriff of real property on credit, a deed of mortgage, signed by the vendee, is not necessary. Clark's ex'rs. vs. Morgan. 259

SLAVE.

- 1 A negro will be presumed free, though purchased as a slave, in a country in which slavery is not tolerated, unless he be proven to have been before in one in which it is. Forayth & al. vs. Nash.

- 2 When the person who claims the defendant as a slave has proven his slavery, he cannot contest the plaintiff's title. Trudeau's ex'rs vs. Robinette. 577
- 3 The deed of emancipation of a slave, under thirty years of age, is void. Same case. id.

STIPULATION.

Avails an absent, in whose favor it is made, Smith vs. Kemper. 409

SURETIES.

- 1 Those of an auctioneer are not liable, if goods in his hands, and on which he had a lien, on the termination of his office, are afterwards sold under a new commission, and he fail to account for the proceeds. Cleiborne vs. Debon & al. 594
- 2 A joint suit may be brought against the principal and surety. Bernard & al. vs. Curtis & al. 214

TUTOR.

By nature, retains the tutorship when he removes out of the state with his ward. Latrobe vs. Boisblanc. 715

VACANT ESTATE.

1. He who opposes a curator's appointment, may shew the applicant is not domiciliated, and possesses no property in the state; and that he is a resident, possesses property in the state, is a large creditor of the estate, and was an old friend of the deceased. Russ vs. Randolph. 870
- 2 An appeal lies to the district court, and thence to the supreme court, on the appointment of a curator. Same case. ib.

- 3 On such an appeal, the district court ought to try the cause de novo. Same case. 370
- 4 The curator may be sued without his sureties being joined. Denis vs. Cordeviella. 654
- 5 The money recovered from him is not to be paid to the attorney of the absent heirs, but into the treasury. Same case. id.

WITNESSES

- 1 The defendant's co-trespasser may be a witness for him. Harang vs. Dauphin. 27
- 2 An agent, entitled to a commission, may be a witness for his principal. Caine vs. Sagory. 61
- 3 A witness testifying against his interest, is not to be rejected. White & al. vs. Holsten & al. 471
- 4 A witness, whose deposition has been taken by one of the parties, may be examined by the other. Bayon vs. Mullere & al. 621
- 5 One who never saw the party write, but has frequently received letters from him, may prove his hand-writing. Clay's syndics vs. Hirtland. 408
- 6 The ceding debtor cannot be used as a witness by his syndics. Same case. 414

370

654

64

37

81

471

631

408

142